Who are the Friends of the Library?

Community members like you who want to help our Library grow and thrive. Through donations and volunteer efforts we help the Library improve facilities and provide services beyond the scope of the Library's normal operating funds.

What do your contributions support?

- Purchases of books for Summer Reading Program participants, robotics, a subscription to The New York Times, ice skating equipment, and decorative bunting.
- Refreshments for over 50 Library events, including the annual Ice Cream Social.
- Funding the services of our local literacy tutoring coordinator.
- Passes for the Utica Children's Museum, the Fenimore Art Museum and Farmers' Museum, and the New York State Parks system, all for use by Library patrons.
- The monthly Book Page magazine.
- Printing and mailing the annual Library newsletter.
- Fund-raising activities in the past year included a Children's Book Sale, an Election Day bake sale, and starting a donation account at Caz Cans.
